Yesterday afternoon, at three o'clock, Chinaman named Ah Cue, and famili-Yesterday the trial of Ferguson contin- arly called "Sam," was seen approaching Lacour street, north of the court house. a dozen persons in the room outside of of the house another Chinaman named Ah Fan, and commonly known as "Charley," fired at him, the ball striking within two or three yards of Ah Cue's five shots at his opponent, none of them, however, taking effect. Just then officer McManus faid hands on him, and he was and the knife. The whole affair did not take more than a minute, and within unknown, and no one saw him more.

The cause of the difficulty was, as near as we could learn, as follows: Ah Fan means he lost his place, and Ah Cue was engaged to fill it. In consequence of this a quarrel occurred between the par, ties in Chinatown, and shortly after Ah Cue "heeled" himself with the weapons above described, and with a laudable de as practiced in Pioche, went after his enemy.

Those in the court-room listening to the testimony in the Ferguson murder trial rushed over the benches to the windows when they heard the shots, in

COMPLIMENTARY. - Rarely have we witnessed a scene of such unalloyed pleasure as was our lot last night in attendance on an impromptu serenade given to our esteemed fellow-citizen, J. C. Maygentleman, friends of Mr. Maynard, conceived the idea of giving him a serenade on the occasion of his approaching departure for San Francisco, whither he goes for a brief period. At nine o'clock, nard's residence, the Pioche Brass Band opened with sweet strains of welcome music, and at the close, cheer upon cheer was given, followed by cries for "Mayfew earnest, but well chosen words thanked the assembled company for the compliment paid him, and begged their company was received in the kindes order being requested by the master of ceremonies, Mr. Tavpey, Henry River expressed to Mr. Maynard their high ex timation of his character, their regret a his departure, and their hope of h speedy return. Mr. Maynard, in re sponse, said, in substance, that he he endeavored, during his sojourn here t lations with the employes of the compo been of a most agreeable character

A STRAY SHOT.-Last night, at 11 Sullivan came to the door (they were enough to fire his pistol off at nothing, fighting then) and said "My God, he's was in vain. An officer was promptly turber of the peace was not to be found.
It is very dangerous to disappoint the people of Pioche in this manner. They will not stand it.

OUR MERCHANTS still keep adding to their immense stock of goods. We nothing to that effect. [The State objected—objection sustained, the question beload of groceries; and to W. L. Pritchard one car load of grain; all of which were shipped by F. F. Marx, of Toano. Flour, grain and groceries—food for man and horse! Send 'em along; Pioche needs many a car load yet.

ARRIVED. - Notwithstanding the late tremendous storm, which they inform us was fully as bad to the north of us as here, Brigham and Johnson's ox teams, ano, were only two days over their regudays from Toano, heavily laden with flour, grain and groceries, It takes a good deal of a shower to keep Marx's freight from arriving on time.

We are permitted to make the following extract from a letter from F. F. Marx, of Toano, to Mr. Brunner, his agent here: On and after the 25th instant rates to Pioche will be as follows: l'ast freight three cents; slow freight two and onehalf cents per pound. All Pioche goods shipped from Ogden via Toano will be the same rate as from Ogden to Lehi.

WE would call the attention of our readers to the advertisement in another column of the Brooks Sewing Machine Co., of New York; they advertise, what is indeed a valuable invention, a first-class sewing machine for five dollars.
